"Hello and welcome to Caerphilly"

Thank you for choosing the county borough of Caerphilly as a destination to visit. Whether it's for a day, a short break or longer, there's a lot waiting to be discovered. From uncovering our rich historical past to lapping up beautiful scenery and wildlife.

This guide is packed with lots of useful information on the area along with inspiration on places to visit and a taste of our renowned Valleys welcome. We hope you find this guide useful and that you'll come to love the borough as much as we do...in the words of Tommy Cooper "Just like that!"  If you need any help or advice while planning your visit or once you are here, contact or call into The Visitor Centre Caerphilly, located in the heart of Caerphilly town.

The local staff have a wealth of knowledge on the area and can help with any aspect of your visit from finding a place to rest your head to selecting a special place to dine.

See you Soon!

Caerphilly

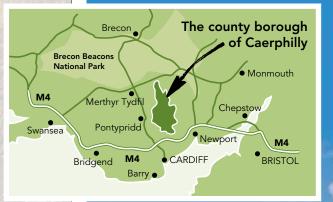

The county borough of Caerphilly is located in the heart of Southern Wales and straddles the ancient county boundaries of Monmouthshire and Glamorgan.

With such close proximity to Cardiff, Newport and the Brecon Beacons, the county borough of Caerphilly is an ideal base for visitors looking to explore the South Wales Valleys and beyond.

There are excellent transport links throughout the borough, with Cardiff just 15 minutes from Caerphilly town by train and 8 miles by car or bus. Visitors have the choice of city shopping and entertainment or the more laid back atmosphere of the county borough of Caerphilly.

Unearthing a sleeping giant

Dominating an impressive 30 acre site, Caerphilly Castle is Wales' largest and Britain's second largest castle behind Windsor.

This medieval fortress was built mainly between 1268 and 1271 by Gilbert de Clare. Known as Gilbert 'The Red' because of his red hair, denoting his Norman heritage, he built the castle to take control of Glamorgan and to prevent the Welsh Prince Llewellyn ap Gruffudd from achieving his southward ambitions.

The design of the castle is based on a concentric ring of walls, something not seen in Britain before. It also has an extensive ring of water defences and huge gatehouses. This mammoth stronghold remains a striking testament to the Anglo-Norman domination of the area.

Lights, camera, action!

Pisa's got nothing on us

Though the focus of many Welsh attacks, Caerphilly Castle has remained a formidable fortress and perhaps one of the greatest strongholds of all-time. Even the efforts of Oliver Cromwell's roundheads failed to break the castle's boundaries, though they which has leaned 3m out of the

did leave a rather remarkable scar – the famous leaning tower, perpendicular since 1648.

Caerphilly Castle and its impressive fortress have provided the perfect backdrop to popular BBC series 'Doctor Who' and 'Merlin', whilst our towns and villages have featured in Sky 1's 'Stella', Welsh drama series 'The Baker Boys' and 'BBC's Casualty'.

Discover local heritage

Unearth the hidden history of Caerphilly County Borough at the Winding House Museum, featuring a changing programme of fascinating exhibitions on the local area's history, heritage and culture. Research your family's past, discover the Victorian winding engine, eat, drink and purchase memorabilia in the museums gift shop! Open Tuesday to Saturday.

Finding your roots

Fuelled by the influence of the popular TV series 'Who Do You Think You Are' and the rising social trend of tracing your genealogy, visitors are increasingly looking to pursue their family history. There is a wealth of information and resources available to help. For more information visit www.caerphilly.gov.uk/chronicle

Remembering the fallen

Commemorating the fallen of the 152 mining disasters across Wales, the National Mining Memorial was unveiled on the centenary of the Universal Colliery Disaster in Senghenydd on the 14th October 2013. The memorial incorporates a bronze statue, wall of remembrance & path of memory within the memorial garden, dedicating a ceramic tile to each disaster.

Experience our legendary past

If you are lucky, you might meet the master of the house Edward Prichard, or perhaps catch a glimpse of the mistress Mary Prichard, though she is a rather 'sickly' soul and does not like to brave the air of the valleys. With the Manor known for being haunted, you never know who you might meet when visiting this 17th century manor house! Enjoy day tours, ghost tours and events throughout

The Iron Age hill fort of Twmbarlwm was once at the heart of the territory of the Silurian Celts, the dominant Celtic tribe of this area.

Constructed between 500 and 150 BC, the site was chosen due to its excellent view of the surrounding area and the Bristol Channel where any approaching threat could easily be seen.

A legend of love

It is said that the restless spirit of Princess Alice of Angouleme, wife of Gilbert de Clare roams Caerphilly Castle in search of her lost love. Legend has it, the princess, growing tired of her husband's cold and angry ways; fell in love with amorous Welsh Prince Gruffudd of Brithdir, only to seal their unfortunate fate. The Princess perished of a broken heart after deranged Gilbert ordered the execution of her lover when the affair was exposed. Now on a moonlit night, you may see the Princess, known as 'The Green Lady' searching for her lover, wearing green as a symbol of her husband's envy.

Gelligaer Roman Fort Location: Gelligaer

Almost 2000 years after the Romans and Silures battled across these hills, Gelligaer is again telling the story of the Romans in the Valleys of South Wales. Why not come and visit this village, which has a history that stretches back to prehistory, and a heritage waiting for you to explore.

Famous faces to come out of the county borough of Caerphilly include the legendary Tommy Cooper, musicians The Manic Street Preachers. Falklands hero Simon Weston, Beauty and the Beast's 'Gaston' actor Luke Evans who was raised in Aberbargoed, presenter Matt Johnson, sporting stars Aaron Ramsey, Nathan Cleverly and Joe Calzaghe... to name but a few!

The Manic Street Preachers

Tommy Cooper

Famous comedian and magician Tommy Cooper was born in Llwyn Onn Street, Caerphilly on the 19th March 1921.

His 'larger than life' personality and unique ability to entertain, makes Tommy one of Caerphilly's most famous and much loved sons.

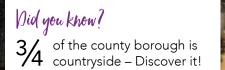

To commemorate his life, a 9 ft bronze statue was commissioned by the Tommy Cooper Society and stands proudly opposite Caerphilly Castle. For more information visit www.visitcaerphilly.com

The county borough has experienced dramatic changes over the past two hundred years transforming it into mile upon mile of beautiful rolling countryside with meadows, rivers, farmland, woods, commons, ponds and much more.

If you're looking for the perfect picnic spot or somewhere to kick a ball, dappled woods to wander through, or riverbanks to ramble down, or safe paths to cycle along then look no further than one of the five country parks in Caerphilly county borough. Enjoy a stroll around the serene lake at Cwmcarn Forest or climb Twmbarlwm if you're feeling more energetic!

Get walking!

With an estimated 5000 hectares of open access land available for walkers, exploring the countryside couldn't be easier. To help you discover the rich natural heritage in the county borough there are several established walk guides available to download at http://your.caerphilly.gov.uk/ countryside/activities/walking/trails. Whether it's healthy short walks, intermediate 5-8 mile walks or more strenuous 20+ mile walks, we have a great selection available.

Cwmcarn Forest is the perfect destination for adrenaline junkies looking for some downhill thrills and a sense of adventure. Demanding concentration, sweeping along open ground, hugging the sides of steep slopes and delivering dramatic views. The Twrch, Y Mynydd, Cafall and Pedalhounds trails are some of the most exciting trails in Wales.

Feel the pump

Cwmcarn Forest offers riders of all ages the chance to hone their skills on the new pump track, offering a smooth transition to tackling cross-country trails and adrenaline fuelled downhill trails.

Change the pace

With over 50 miles of local and national cycleways throughout the county borough, there's a route to suit every ability. From embarking on a manmade trail, discovering the natural paths forged through the countryside utilising bridleways, restricted byways and forest roads to challenging descents over Caerphilly mountain, the borough's cycling is "legendary" according to Bradley Wiggins... we certainly can't argue with that!

Route 47 of The Celtic Trail offers a 'Three Parks Trail' which is ideal for families with a stop off in Nelson village for refreshments.

Nid you know? Sir Bradley Wiggins won the Caerphilly stage of the Tour of Britain in 2013

Have a Passion for the Eutopors?

Explore on horseback

Horse riders can use the many miles of bridleways and restricted byways in the county borough. Natural Resources Wales, who manage large areas of forest in the county borough, allow horse riders to use many routes and riders are able to use forests in Abercarn, Hollybush and Rudry areas.

Riding Routes have been developed in the Rudry area of the borough. These Ridgeway Rides provide 9 routes of between 1.5 to 6.5 miles of off road riding. For a 'Ridgeway Rides – Explore Caerphilly on Horseback' guide download at: http://your.caerphilly.gov.uk/countryside/activities/horse-riding

Gain a sense of adventure

Located on Caerphilly mountain, Mountain View Ranch is ideal for visitors looking for a bit of 'fresh air fueled fun'. Hosting the ultimate in outdoor activities you can experience the thrill of the high ropes, discover an amazing tree house, a magical fairy forest, a campfire with marshmallow toasting or follow the footprints of Wales' only officially licensed Gruffalo Trail.

Tee time in the valleys

You can't beat teeing off in the early morning at the mature treelined fairways of Bryn Meadows championship 18 hole course, with panoramic views over the golf course and across the surrounding Sirhowy Valley. No two holes are the same and with perfect peace and tranguillity, you'll only occasionally be disturbed by shouts of 'fore' from wayward tee shots (leave your driver in your boot).

The County Borough of Caerphilly Visitor Guide 2019

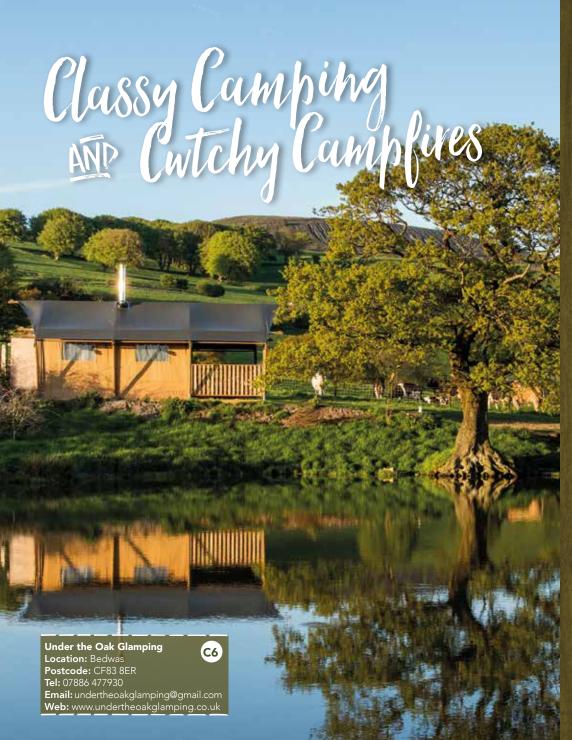

Did you know?

There is a sculpture

of Caerphilly Cheese

of Caerphilly town!

After losing several cattle to TB in 2017, the Watt family made a bold move by diversifying part of their working farm to accommodate a luxurious safari tent. Lydia and Richard spotted a gap in the market for a high end glamping site that would take in the stunning landscape surrounding Pen y Waun Farm in Bedwas.

Nestled under an ancient oak tree next to a tranquil pond, the safari tent offers the best of both worlds, the comforts of home with the thrill of camping and indulging in the great outdoors. Lydia's attention to detail is evident with a full bathroom (and flushing toilet!), a natural hot tub heated by a wood burning stove and a fire pit to cook al fresco.

After an incredibly successful summer season in 2018, Lydia and Richard plan to add two further safari tents to their Glampsite in 2019, this will allow larger groups and families to visit.

There's never a dull day when running the Glampsite alongside the family farm. Some guests have had unexpected visits from naughty calves who have jumped over the fence to have a closer look!

Under the Oak Safari tent sleeps four with a Welsh box bed and a double sofa bed.
