Unearthing a sleeping giant

Dominating an impressive 30 acre site, Caerphilly Castle is Wales' largest and Britain's second largest castle behind Windsor.

This medieval fortress was built mainly between 1268 and 1271 by Gilbert de Clare. Known as Gilbert 'The Red' because of his red hair, denoting his Norman heritage, he built the castle to take control of Glamorgan and to prevent the Welsh Prince Llewellyn ap Gruffudd from achieving his southward ambitions.

The design of the castle is based on a concentric ring of walls, something not seen in Britain before. It also has an extensive ring of water defences and huge gatehouses. This mammoth stronghold remains a striking testament to the Anglo-Norman domination of the area.

Lights, camera, action!

Caerphilly Castle and its impressive fortress have provided the perfect backdrop to popular BBC series 'Doctor Who' and 'Merlin', whilst our towns and villages have featured in Sky 1's 'Stella', Welsh drama series 'The Baker Boys' and 'BBC's Casualty'.

Pisa's got nothing on us
Though the focus of many Welsh attacks, Caerphilly Castle has remained a formidable fortress and perhaps one of the greatest strongholds of all-time. Even the efforts of Oliver Cromwell's roundheads failed to break the castle's boundaries, though they did leave a rather remarkable scar – the famous leaning tower, which has leaned 3m out of the perpendicular since 1648.

Set in 1645, the servants of Llancaiach Fawr Manor will be pleased to show you around their master's fine house, provided you are of good repute of course!

If you are lucky, you might meet the master of the house Edward Prichard, or perhaps catch a glimpse of the mistress Mary Prichard, though she is a rather 'sickly' soul and does not like to brave the air of the valleys. With the Manor known for being haunted, you never know who you might meet when visiting this 17th century manor house! Enjoy day tours, ghost tours and events throughout the year at this splendid Manor House.

A land of myths AND legends

The Iron Age hill fort of Twmbarlwm was once at the heart of the territory of the Silurian Celts, the dominant Celtic tribe of this area.

Constructed between 500 and 150 BC, the site was chosen due to its excellent view of the surrounding area and the Bristol Channel where any approaching threat could easily be seen.

A legend of love

It is said that the restless spirit of Princess Alice of Angouleme, wife of Gilbert de Clare roams Caerphilly Castle in search of her lost love.

Legend has it, the princess, growing tired of her husband's cold and angry ways; fell in love with amorous Welsh Prince Gruffudd of Brithdir, only to seal their unfortunate fate.

The Princess perished of a broken heart after deranged Gilbert ordered the execution of her lover when the affair was exposed. Now on a moonlit night, you may see the Princess, known as 'The Green Lady' searching for her lover, wearing green as a symbol of her husband's envy.

Reconnect with nature at Cwmcaern Forest

Cwmcaern Forest Lodges

Location: Cwmcaern
Postcode: NP11 7FA
Tel: 01495 272001
Email: cwmcaern-vc@caerphilly.gov.uk
Web: www.cwmcaernforest.co.uk

Cwmcaern Forest proves that you don't have to travel very far to truly escape from it all.

A stay at the brand new luxury lodges in Cwmcaern Forest - which are just a 15-minute drive from the M4 - provides it all, fresh air, tranquillity and comfort.

Launched in July, six luxury lodges were introduced to the stunning Cwmcaern Forest. Nestled in trees and woodland, just a stones throw from a beautiful lake, walking trails and a visitor centre serving a hearty English breakfast, lunch and snacks.

Each of the lodges has been designed to maximise comfort and space, with a fitted bathroom, kitchen area, digital TV and central heating. Choose from a cosy two person lodge, a mid size four person lodge or a bigger family size lodge that sleeps up to six with a double bed, sofa bed and bunk beds. One of the lodges allow pets too so you can take your four legged friend with you!

Combine these modern facilities with the great outdoors and you get adventure! Whether it's the fast paced variety such as kayaking or mountain biking (the mountain bike trails are first class and not for the faint hearted!) or one of the many walking trails on offer. The challenging Twmbarlwm walk involves a lot of effort but the spectacular views are worth the effort. For a gentler stroll there's the Bluebell Walk which takes in the lake and beautiful countryside fauna and flora.

Lodges are available to book from April 2020 for 3, 4 or 7 night stays. Take a look at the brand new website for more details and to book. Lodges start from £252 for 3 nights off peak.

The 7 mile forest drive is due to re-open Summer 2020 and will have some new features including play areas, car parks and picnic spots. Keep checking the website for announcements.
